

The Carolina Region depends on our outstanding Tournament Directors to provide opportunities for volleyball participants from across the state and nation to play this great sport. Please consider hosting an event in 2009!

Number of Teams Continue to GROW

- 21 Men's teams and 35 Women's teams in 2008
- 374 Junior Girl's teams and 7 Junior Boy's teams in 2008!
- Junior Age Groups: 18's, 17's, 16's, 15's, 14's, 13's, and 12's
- Most Junior Girl's age groups have five divisions of play based on skill level: Platinum, Gold, Silver, Bronze, Copper
- Finding facilities to host events is the number one issue facing the Carolina Region each season. Won't you help?

Carolina Region Tournaments are...

Exciting

Action-packed

Tense

Fun

Educational

Rewarding

A common misconception we hear is that hosting a Volleyball tournament is too difficult. We are doing our best to ensure that is not the case! Our established guidelines are set up so the event can pretty much run itself. We are here to help you get started.

What does it take to host an Event?

❖ A SITE

Most of our tournaments are held in facilities with two or three courts. The Carolina Region guarantees payment for a minimum of four teams per court at the tournament entry deadline, so tournament directors will usually have between 8 and 15 teams depending on the number of courts available. Facilities with more than 3 courts may submit to host two or more divisions to maximize your court space.

❖ AWARDS

The Carolina Region pays Tournament Directors approximately $70 per team (the Tournament Director Handbook provides detailed breakdown of where tournament entry fees are distributed). The only expenses that the Tournament Director is responsible for are the awards (individual awards for first and second place teams) and facility rental costs. The Carolina Region will pay the officials.

For our Regional Championships, the Carolina Region pays for the awards so the Tournament Director is only responsible for the facility rental and running the event.

❖ EQUIPMENT/FORMS

The Tournament Director will set up the facility with all volleyball equipment and like-new USAV-approved volleyballs. Enough scoresheets should be provided for all matches. Results should be tracked in a central location. Our Tournament Director Handbook will have all the forms needed to run the event and we have a section of our website just for Tournament Directors!

❖ MEMBERSHIP

All players, officials, coaches, and tournament directors must be current members of the Carolina Region or USA Volleyball. See our website for information on joining the Carolina Region. Individuals that register online by November 1 receive a discount.

❖ ENTHUSIASM

Tournament Directors have to love volleyball and have a desire to give back to the sport! Contact the Region Office if this describes you. Get in on the ACTION!
