What is the Carolina Region?

The ONLY USA Volleyball Regional Volleyball Association (RVAs) for North Carolina. One of 40 RVAs in the country promoting volleyball for USA Volleyball

Incorporated as a charitable organization in North Carolina [501 (c)(3)] whose mission is to develop and improve the sport of volleyball throughout North Carolina from grassroots programs to the elite.

Vital resource for:

- ◆ Playing & Officiating Clinics
- ◆ Organized Competition
- ◆ Coaching Education and Development
- ◆ Facility Improvement and Development

Carolina Region is FUN!

Provider of opportunities to compete in Regional and National Events:

- ◆ USA Open Volleyball Championships
- ◆ Junior National Volleyball Championships
- ◆ USA Open Beach Volleyball Championships
- ◆ National Qualifier Tournaments
- ◆ High Performance National Championships
- ◆ and other local and national events.

A group of staff, volunteers and supporters dedicated to promoting the sport.

A SMART decision for FUN times in a GREAT Life-time Sport!

What is USA VOLLEYBALL (USAV)?

It is the National Governing Body for the sport of volleyball in the United States; therefore, it is USAV's primary responsibility to increase volleyball participation at all levels, promote and support the USA National Teams, and enhance general interest in the sport in the U.S. USAV implements its mission through a staff of volleyball professionals headquartered in Colorado Springs and affiliations with 40 Regional Volleyball Associations (RVAs). Additionally, USAV is affiliated with 37 other National member organizations representing well over 3 million volleyball players nationwide.
